

Google Docs and Dropbox (new Repositories!) 2013.09.12

Google Docs and Dropbox added as moodle Repositories

WARNING: If you share a PC, or other device, where a moodle-session just took place with uploads made from Google Docs or Dropbox Repositories, please note:

The Login/connection to any of these Repositories will stay ON and their contents will remain completely available to anyone in that device, unless you close that connection. Here is how:

 If you used Google Docs during your Moodle session: close that connection or change it, by:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. exiting the Browser, to close all sessions and links to external sources and <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 2. going to Google Docs... (http://docs.google.com/) click on your Account name in the upper right corner of the screen and "Sign out"
WARNING: The Logout (in the Google Docs-"File picker" window) will NOT kill the session or break the connection.
 If you used Dropbox during your Moodle session: close that connection or change it, by:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. exiting the Browser, to close all sessions and links to external sources and <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 2. going to Dropbox...
