POST-ACCEPTANCE

VISA PROCESS

Once you receive a DS-2019 you must obtain a visa to study in the USA.

Once you receive your DS2019 (and pay the SEVIS fee) you can contact the nearest U.S. Embassy/Consulate to request a visa appointment.

You can find embassy locations and visa information (non-immigrant visas) at: www.usembassy.gov. In general you will need to:

- 1.) Complete a visa application, Form DS-160 (can be downloaded from U.S embassy/consulate website) and print out the receipt for the fee payment.
- 2.) Have a passport valid 6 months into the future.
- 3.) Demonstrate proof of funds for study in the U.S. through financial documentation.
- 4.) Provide a valid and signed DS2019.
- 5.) Pay the I-901 (SEVIS) fee: payment of the SEVIS fee is required of all foreign nationals coming to the United States in J-1 nonimmigrant status. You will be required to make the payment before applying for a U.S. visa stamp and bring the receipt with you to your interview. You can pay the online at www.fmjfee.com.

Education USA – Student Visa Process

Please visit the Education USA website for information and videos about the student visa process.

You can view international students discussing visa interviews at www.educationusa.state.gov. Go to “International Students” and then to “Prepare for the Student Visa.” You may also view a video made by international students called “International Student Demystify the Visa Process” which will give you useful information about your visa interview.

UPON ARRIVAL

US-Visit: Arriving at a Port of Entry

When you arrive at the U.S. border you will be processed by a Customs and Border Protection (CBP) agent and you will go through the US-Visit System. You will have two finger prints scanned by an inkless device and have a digital photograph taken. This should only take a few seconds.

Please be sure that you enter the U.S. on your J-1 student visa and not on another visa stamp that may be in your passport. After you arrive, you can check your electronic I-94 record to make sure you were admitted in proper J-1 status. You can do this at: www.cbp.gov/I94. Should you find that you were not admitted in J-1 status you should report this to the ISSO and we will instruct you on how to fix your CPB arrival record.

Immigration Document Check & Government Reporting (SEVIS Registration)

You are required by U.S. immigration law to physically report to the institution listed on your U.S visa stamp within 30 days of your arrival. The Study Abroad & Exchange Office must report your presence in the government database within 30 days of arrival. At the International Student Orientation an advisor will review of your original immigration documents during your J-1 immigration presentation. You will be issued information about the upcoming orientation by the Office of Global Programs. You must attend this orientation session to receive an online link to upload your immigration documents.

Important Insurance Information

All J-1 Exchange Visitors are required by federal regulations to have medical insurance for the entire period of their stay in the U.S. You may select the medical insurance that is best for you; however, here is the minimum coverage that must be met:

- $100,000 per accident or illness
- Medical evacuation in the amount of $10,000**
- Repatriation coverage for up to $7500**
- A deductible of no more than $500 per illness

** Please note that MEDICAL EVACUATION AND REPATRIATION COVERAGE IS AVAILABLE FREE OF CHARGE TO ALL J-1 EXCHAGNE VISITORS AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS. IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO ENROLL OR COMPLETE AN APPLICATION.

You will receive a separate email with the insurance card listing the University policy number when your DS2019 is issued.

ABOUT THE AREA

Visit Boston: A City of Neighborhoods

www.boston.gov/neighborhoods

South Boston

South Boston spreads across a peninsula just south of Downtown Boston and east of the South End and Dorchester. South Boston is home to both long-time residents and a new wave of young professionals who are drawn to the area's open space, emerging nightlife, and easy access to downtown. The neighborhood boasts miles of beaches and waterfront parks, including Carson Beach, L Street Beach, Pleasure Bay, and the Strandway. South Boston's commercial district, including established businesses alongside new bars, restaurants, and retailers, is built around East and West Broadway.

Commute to campus: 10-20 minutes

Dorchester

Dorchester is Boston's largest and oldest neighborhood, and is home to UMass Boston. Dorchester's demographic diversity has been a well-sustained tradition of the neighborhood, and long-time residents blend with more recent immigrants. A number of smaller communities compose the greater neighborhood, including Codman Square, Jones Hill, Meeting House Hill, Pope's Hill, Savin Hill, Harbor Point, Lower Mills, and Port Norfolk. Malibu and Tenean Beaches offer summertime recreation and numerous parks are scattered through the area.

Commute to campus: 5-20 minutes

Mattapan

The neighborhood of Mattapan is a southern neighborhood of Boston. Today, Mattapan is a residential area with growing commercial centers. Mattapan is home to a diverse population—primarily made up of Haitians, other Caribbean immigrants, and African Americans. Mattapan residents enjoy a significant amount of green space, including Harambee Park, the Franklin Park Zoo, the Boston Nature Center and Wildlife Sanctuary, and the historic Forest Hills Cemetery. Blue Hill Avenue and Mattapan Square are the neighborhood's main commercial districts, home to banks, law offices, restaurants, retail shops, health centers, and places of worship.

Commute to campus: 15-20 minutes

ABOUT THE AREA

Cambridge

Cambridge is a unique community with a strong mix of cultural and social diversity, intellectual vitality, and technological innovation. College students from around the world study at Harvard, Radcliffe, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and Lesley University. The charming neighborhoods ("Squares") of Cambridge are rich in options for shopping, dining, and sightseeing, offering plenty of theatres, museums, and historic sites. Central Square, the seat of city government, contains a variety of international restaurants and music clubs. Kendall Square, home to MIT, is the focal point of the Massachusetts high tech and biotechnology industries. Harvard Square, surrounding the historic brick walls of the nation's oldest university, offers a plethora of cafes, bookstores, boutiques, and entertainment choices.

Commute to campus: 30-45 minutes

Quincy

Just across the bay from campus, Quincy's impressive past remains vibrant today as the city lays claim to an exciting future. Fascinating historic sites abound, while miles of coastline capture the imagination. Culture and commerce blend to create an impressive array of things to see and do year round. Stroll the boardwalk at picturesque Marina Bay, the largest marina in the Northeast, and enjoy the incredible view of the Boston skyline. Known for its spectacular sunsets, Marina Bay has several restaurants offering outdoor and indoor waterfront dining as well as a variety of retail shops.

Somerville

Somerville is an eclectic mix of blue-collar families, young professionals, college students and recent immigrants from countries as diverse as El Salvador, Haiti, and Brazil. There are more than 50 spoken languages in Somerville schools. With a large immigrant population, Somerville celebrates its diversity through numerous ceremonies celebrating cultural traditions and holidays. Somerville is defined by its city squares, which help mark neighborhood boundaries while also featuring bustling businesses and entertainment centers. Among the most active today are Davis Square, Union Square, Ball Square, Teele Square, Magoun Square, and Assembly Square. Each offers a mix of ethnic restaurants, bars and shops and small businesses to fit every taste and occasion.

Braintree

Braintree is a suburb of Boston located just next to Quincy. With easy access to the MBTA (red line and commuter rail) and highways, Braintree is host to many students and young professionals seeking more affordable housing options. Braintree is home to a strong business base which includes one of the largest regional shopping centers in the northeast; The South Shore Plaza.

Commute to campus: 30-45 minutes

East Boston

In 1940, East Boston was the arrival point for thousands of immigrants to Boston, infusing the neighborhood with an Old World charm and diversity which still characterizes East Boston today. A number of unique restaurants and retailers reflect the diversity of the neighborhood. Maverick Square and Central Square are the main commercial areas. Though East Boston is not contiguous to Boston, it is easily accessed via the Callahan, Ted Williams, and Sumner Tunnels; the Blue Line T; MBTA ferries; and surface roads to the north. Belle Isle Marsh Reservation and Constitution Beach offer recreational opportunities to residents, and striking views of the Boston skyline can be had from Piers Park.

Commute to campus: 35-50 minutes

TAKING THE "T"

The MBTA (The "T") connects the Greater Boston Area.

The JFK/UMass Station on the T's red line is most convenient to UMass Boston and there are shuttles that run every 5-10 minutes from the Campus Center. The T offers an 11% discount to all students if purchased through UMB Office of Student Activities.
