

Case: Harley-Davidson 2018: Trump, Tariffs, and the Future

Preparation questions:

1. How do Donald Trump's policies with respect to foreign trade and foreign investments affect Harley-Davidson?
2. Which national standards and regulations besides import tariffs should be taken into account when choosing a country to open a new plant?
3. Which regulatory consequences may be expected if Harley-Davidson decides to open a new plant abroad? Consider both potential regulatory consequences in the U.S. and in another country where a new plant is opened.
4. What are the possible regulatory consequences if Harley-Davidson decides to open a new plant in the US rather than abroad?
